INTERNATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY Division 52 of the APA

The Division of International Psychology (Division 52) represents the interest of all psychologists who foster international connections among psychologists, engage in multicultural research or practice, apply psychological principles to the development of public policy, or are otherwise concerned with individual and group consequences of global events.

To encourage the development of a more international perspective in psychology, Division 52:

- ❖ Sponsors programming at the annual meeting of the American Psychological Association to stimulate interest in and share information about international psychology;
- ❖ Provides networking opportunities for psychologists from around the world through the division's newsletter the International Psychology Reporter, convention programming, and other activities;
- ❖ Supports the activities of APA's International Affairs Office and its Committee on International Relations in Psychology (CIRP);
- ❖ Provides a welcoming "home base" for APA's international affiliates during conventions;

- ❖ Promotes the development of international consulting, training, and research opportunities for psychologists with US based international agencies and exchange programs with international agencies based elsewhere;
- ❖ Encourages the internationalization of the psychology curriculum through educational initiatives and resources.
